

Duvall Homes presents the 2017 Inspiration Gala Entertainment
JOHNNY WILD AND THE DELIGHTS
Sponsored by Chris and Maureen Kemp,
Broker/Owner of Kemp Realty Group

August 1, 2017 - Duvall Homes' third annual Inspiration Gala fundraiser on September 29, 2017, at the Wayne G. Sanborn Center in DeLand, FL, presented by Reames Employee Benefits Solutions, is going to have a few exceptional surprises this year, including the popular actor and musician Andy Matchett, a.k.a. Johnny Wild, as singer/entertainer Johnny Wild and the Delights. He will also be the Gala's Master of Ceremonies.

Sponsored by Kemp Realty Group and Chris and Maureen Kemp (Broker/Owner) the Delights, a high-energy, 7-piece band that specializes in the hits of the '50s and '60s, Johnny Wild will charm guests with favored melodies by immortal legends like Buddy Holly, Roy Orbison, Elvis Presley, as well as countless jukebox smashes from Chuck Berry, Richie Valens and many more.

Fresh off his recent casting as Buddy in the National Tour of The Buddy Holly Story, as well as three consecutive sellout runs of both The Buddy Holly Story and Hank Williams Lost Highway, Andy and his band have been earning praise from capacity crowds and critics alike. According to the Lakeland Ledger, "Matchett grabs the heart and soul of Holly and serves it to the audience with equal parts sensitivity, humor, and fine-tuned musical skill... The audience loves him." Matt Palm of The Orlando Sentinel said, "He can evoke a performer's spirit without resorting to Vegas-style impersonation, and his charisma captivates an audience's attention... Singing with a focused intensity, Matchett lets us see into [his character's] soul."

In addition to witnessing an authenticity and a passion rarely seen among tribute bands, Gala guests and sponsors will have the pleasure of enjoying the female vocal trio of the Wildettes backup singers, and an incredible band including a stand-up bass, lead guitar and drums. Guests will also enjoy distinctive hors d'oeuvres and a seated dinner by Orlando's award-winning Puff 'N Stuff. An inspiring program will fill the evening, highlighted by Duvall achievements over the past year, Stetson University Music students performing, and a special tribute for guest honoree John Olivari of Olivari & Associates, CPA. One other new element for the event will feature a 20+ items silent auction, with tickets to Disney Parks, to Valspar Championship PGA Tournament, Southwest Airlines tickets, boat tours, inspiring signature works of art created at Duvall, a one-week mountain vacation getaway in North Carolina donated by John & Barbara Vazquez, to name just a few!

The 2017 Inspiration Gala is going to be a very special night filled with lasting experiences and many memorable inspiring moments. It is an RSVP ticketed fundraiser event. Additional details at ImInspired.org. To RSVP, email ebhimjee@duvallhomes.org.
